

Shelley Marshall, a true Canadian treasure named “Best New Discovery” (Now Magazine) has evolved into a brand all her own. Audiences around the world are drawn to her authentic way of engaging and enlightening those that attend her performances.

Shelley is quickly becoming an international success, headlining world renowned comedy clubs and speaking engagements from Canada, Great Britain and Spain, to Amsterdam and South Africa.

Shelley has become a kaleidoscope of talent; as comedienne, actress, keynote speaker and producer. Her accolades include a “Best Female Stand Up” and “Best One Person Show” nomination for The Canadian Comedy Awards.

Shelley was awarded GOLD for Best Theatre Production of Hold Mommy’s Cigarette (View Magazine) and was selected by The Canadian Association of Mental Health to perform her one woman show for World Suicide Prevention Day.

Hold Mommy’s Cigarette is an autobiographical one woman show that shares Shelley’s intimate journey through mental illness, the suicide of her father, her own suicide attempt and the effects that have lingered throughout her life. Shelley invites you to enjoy her performance with an open mind and perhaps you’ll leave with a fuller heart.

HOLD MOMMY’S CIGARETTE

In “HOLD MOMMY’S CIGARETTE” Shelley takes her audience on a journey of joy and laughter with moments of shock and awe.

It’s in the truth of the characters that Shelley brings to life; where tragedy and comedy become one. It’s Shelley’s openness to explore taboo subjects that still raise eyebrows, the reason why she has been described as “sexy, satirical and sharply intelligent”.

This is a story of the letting go of ages and finding truth beneath the layers of lives lost and loves found.
